

COURT: Once again, good morning to all of you. Mr. Tolman, does the prosecution have any further preliminary motions to present at this time?

MR. TOLMAN: At this time, the United States has no further requests.

COURT: Does the defense have any further requests?

MR. NELSON: As of now, we only wish that the court proceed in the fastest way possible, so that we may get to trial quickly.

COURT: Thank you all for participating in these early proceedings. We, under Title 18 of the US Code will now proceed to preparations for jury selection. As you well- Mr. Spencer, is there a problem?

MR. SPENCER: Yes your honor. I am sorry that I forgot--

COURT: Counselor, what is this about?

MR. SPENCER: I have just reviewed your rulings on motions last Monday. Did you receive the inquiry on the Rule 13 request?

COURT: It seems- that I did not get that. When did you file it?

MR. SPENCER: Monday, just prior to the hearing.
